

Ideal Leadership Team Model

Adult Campus Ministry Leaders

- It is suggested that you have a minimum of two adult campus ministry leaders.
- One of those leaders needs to be a coach and the other a school faculty member (teacher, administrator, counselor, etc).
- When paired together, a Coach brings influence and a Faculty Member brings time. Therefore, you have the best of both gifting's in your adults serving.

Student Campus Ministry Leaders

- It is suggested that you have a leadership team of 6-8 student-athlete leaders.
- The majority of these leaders need to be athletes to adhere to the FCA's ministry distinctive of being athletically focused.
- The make-up of your student leadership team will be reflected in the type of students that attend the FCA huddle ministry.

Position-Based v. Task- Based Leadership Teams

In developing a leadership team, there are two types of models FCA encourages:

- A Position-Based Leadership Team parallels the gifts and talents of a leader with a specific position in leadership. A student serves in this position for a year.
- A Task-Based Leadership Team assigns differing tasks to each leader based on their gifts and talents. These assignments are not limited to a specific time; it could be for one week, one month, or one semester.

Position-Based Leadership Team

Tasks	Position/Responsibility
Facilitate Meeting	Captain
Take Minutes	Secretary
Handle Finances	Treasurer
Communications	Promotions Coordinator – Announcements made through school media and online, flyers/posters displayed on campus, etc

Task-Based Leadership Team

These are assigned in the Leadership Team meetings.

Tasks	Position/Responsibility
Audio/Video	A/V Coordinator – Makes sure audio is ready for exciting music before and after huddle meeting. Coordinates equipment to ensure video presentations.
Food/Drinks	Refreshment Coordinator – Coordinates all refreshments
Hospitality	Greeter – Intentionally greets everyone and makes sure visitors are connected with other students.
